

THE My-TESOL WEB

2003 CONFERENCE REGISTRATION FORM

Michigan League
University of Michigan
Ann Arbor

Friday Evening, October 31
Saturday, November 1

PLENARY SPEAKER

MARGO GOTTLIEB (Ph. D., Public Policy Analysis, University of Illinois at Chicago, and Director, Assessment and Evaluation, for the Illinois Resource Center in Des Plaines, Illinois) is known for her work with states, national organizations, publishers, universities, school districts, and schools for promoting equity in accountability and developing and implementing sound assessment systems for linguistically and culturally diverse students. She has been a bilingual/ESL teacher, coordinator, and curriculum writer. Currently, she serves on several national assessment advisory panels and is lead coordinator for a multi-state consortium. For TESOL, she has been appointed to serve on the NAEP steering committee, having chaired the ESEA Reauthorization Task Force and been coeditor of "Tips From the Classroom" for the TESOL Journal. As a member of the ESL Standards and Assessment Project, she contributed to various TESOL publications on the TESOL pre-K-12 ESL standards and she has lead four TESOL Academy workshops. It is our honor to welcome her to Michigan.
